

Is this hole used for a 1 inch diameter alignment pin?

Up in drawing. What does this mean in practice? How much does this part rotate, and at what telescope/rotator angles is this direction actually upwards?

Instrument mounts to this surface using 1/2-13 screws on 46 inch diameter

f/11 focus of telescope is here, 125 mm from plane of flange

