

Statistical Summaries of Teaching Evaluation Forms:

Astronomy 100: Survey of Astronomy Spring 2002, Associate Lecturer Jordan D. Marche, Ph.D.

Question	Average Score (1=poor, 5=excellent)
1. Understanding of the course material.	4.75
2. Ability to communicate the course material.	4.65
3. Getting the class interested and involved in the discussion of the material.	4.51
4. Scheduling office hours and being there.	4.40
5. Willingness to help with individual student problems during office hours.	4.62
6. Overall performance as a teaching Assistant.	4.70

Astronomy 113: Hands on the Universe Fall 2003, Professor John Hoessel

Question	Average Score (1=poor, 5=excellent)
1. Understanding of the course material.	4.83
2. Ability to communicate the course material.	4.65
3. Getting the class interested and involved in the discussion of the material.	4.50
4. Scheduling office hours and being there.	4.62
5. Willingness to help with individual student problems during office hours.	4.80
6. Overall performance as a teaching Assistant.	4.81

(Soren asked the students to answer 3 additional questions from the instructor evaluation form.)

7. To what extent did the TA make the material interesting and stimulate your thinking?	4.50
8. Was the TA usually prepared and on time?	4.68
9. If you met with the TA outside of class, how did you feel about the help you received?	4.67